

New Mexico Pharmacist Web Based Training “Prescriptive Authority for Tobacco Cessation Products”

Sponsored by:

New Mexico Pharmacists Association
New Mexico Pharmaceutical Care Foundation
New Mexico Department of Health TUPAC Program

INITIAL RELEASE DATE:

11/23/2011

PLANNED EXPIRATION DATE:

11/23/2014

PROGRAM LENGTH: 0.8

CONTACT HOURS: 8.0

TARGET AUDIENCE:

Pharmacists

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Amy Bachyrycz, Pharm D.

Phone #: 505-292-4704

abachyrycz@salud.unm.edu

OR

Julie Weston

Phone #: 1-800-464-8729 or

505-265-8729

nmpa-admin@qwestoffice.net

Course accessible at:

<https://hsc-moodle.health.unm.edu/>

Objective:

This course meets the training requirements established by the New Mexico Board of Pharmacy for qualification of New Mexico licensed pharmacists' prescriptive authority for tobacco cessation drug therapy. [16.19.26.10 NMAC-N, 12-15-02]

“New Mexico Pharmacist Prescriptive Authority for Tobacco Cessation Products Home-study Webinar” ACPE #0104-0000-11-060-H04-P 7 contact hrs. / 0.7 CEUs

Upon completion of this application-based program, participants will be able to:

1. Discuss the epidemiology of tobacco use including: populations trends, health-related consequences and the benefits of tobacco cessation.
2. Explain the pharmacologic effects of nicotine and the principles of nicotine addiction
3. Utilize the National Cancer Institute's 5A's [ask, advise, assess, assist, arrange] when counseling patients for tobacco cessation

- a. Assess a tobacco user's readiness to quit tobacco use
- b. Assist patient tobacco cessation using individually tailored methods
- c. Select appropriate tobacco cessation aids

“New Mexico Pharmacist Prescriptive Authority for Tobacco Cessation Products”

ACPE #0104-0000-11-059-L04-P 1 contact hr. / 0.1 CEU

Upon completion of this application-based program, participants will be able to:

1. Comply with the New Mexico Board of Pharmacy requirements for prescriptive authority of tobacco cessation products including:

- a. Patient information & educational materials
- b. Patient informed consent
- c. Patient privacy
- d. Prescription requirements
- e. Maintenance of records
- f. Legal issues

2. Demonstrate appropriate use and compliance with the Tobacco Cessation Protocol as approved by the New Mexico Board of Pharmacy, the New Mexico Board of Medical Examiners and the New Mexico Board of Nursing.

To receive a Statement of Credit you must:

1. Complete Pre and Post Test
2. Review all content
3. Participate in Live Conference call TBD by Instructor
4. Complete lesson evaluation

The New Mexico Pharmacists Association is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education as a provider of continuing pharmacy education. Programs Initial Release Dates: 11/23/11